RECESSIONAL

Jan started a successful career in retail as a manager of Afterthoughts in the Boulevard Mall. She was recruited to become one of the first managers in the Forum Shops at Cesar's Palace. She was a manager at BCBG in the mall and at Hexx Kitchen & Bar in the Paris Hotel and Casino. She later became a crew member on a cruise ship. She moved to Lansing, MI in 2018 where she became a Barista at the Starbucks Radisson where she created custom drinks for her favorite customers. She was very passionate about food presentation. She loved a beautiful plate so much that she would blow our phones up with pictures of her plated dishes. She loved to cook which is highly ironic because until she met Moira's father she never cooked at all. No matter where she started, Jan always shined.

Jan's greatest joy in life was her daughter Moira. Her daughter meant the world to her, she was so proud of her. Jan was extremely generous and kind to all that knew her. She would give her last dime if needed. She was loyal and easily loved. She had a very sarcastic wit and a quick comeback. She was always ready for the next fight with anyone. Her love affair with movies knew no bounds. She related everything she was going through, through a movie line or scene. She could quote all the lines from her favorite movie The Hunt for Red October.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter Moira Turner of Los Angeles, CA, father Starlington (Bob) Simms of Tacoma Park, MD, mother Linda Abrams (Kenney Brown), three sisters; Tammy Simms, her twin sister Danette Parks (Cedric) of Las Vegas, NV, Stephanie Bowie of Indianapolis, IN; one brother Damian Bowie, stepfather Steve Bowie of Centralia, WA, three nieces; Alexis Parks, Nicole Parks, Christiaunna Raines, grand-niece Peyton Parks who was her mutant and her grand nephew Aidan Romero all of Las Vegas, NV. She also leaves to cherish many fond memories a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and loved ones who will miss her dearly.
